GMW Thunderclap

Thunderclap.it is a "crowdspeaking" platform that lets individuals and companies rally people together to spread a message.

This year we've launched a GMW Thunderclap!

"Today we kickstart Global Money Week 2017 to make sure children and youth can #LearnSaveEarn. Join the celebration!"

Please support the GMW Thunderclap by signing up and sharing the campaign!

How it works: When you add your support you will be signed up to send a collective tweet scheduled for the launch of GMW 2017 – if hundreds of partners and supports rally together across Twitter, it helps to amplify the message of GMW!

You can sign up to support the campaign here:
